David Church Appointed Next General Secretary of Catholic Teachers' Association

January 31, 2019 – The Ontario English Catholic Teacher's Association (OECTA) is pleased to announce that David Church will be taking on the role of General Secretary as of June 1, 2019.

Mr. Church has a long history of service to Catholic education, from his early days as a Catholic secondary teacher in Toronto, to his most recent role as Deputy General Secretary of OECTA. Mr. Church brings valuable knowledge and experience to his new role, and has particular expertise in the areas of government relations and collective bargaining.

“David brings significant experience to this position, and I am confident he will ensure our Association continues its tradition of leadership in Ontario’s publicly funded education system, and on behalf of Catholic teachers across the province,” said Liz Stuart, president of the Ontario English Catholic Teachers’ Association. “This appointment will also ensure a measure of continuity and assurance for the Association as we move forward.”
